

Detailed Module Components

Developing a Sense of Chronology

- What is chronology?
- Video
- Quiz based on video
- Why a sense of chronology is important for students of History
- Activities that develop a sense of chronology
 - Sequencing things in a chronological order: What comes after what?
 - Identifying anachronisms: Is the object placed in the right time period?
 - Understanding terms describing time: How long ago?
 - Developing the concepts of BCE and CE: How are they calculated?

- Naming centuries: How are centuries identified?
- Developing a personal timeline: How are events plotted on a timeline?
- Video
- Quiz based on the module

Sriparna Tamhane is a researcher, teacher educator, mentor and a developer of educational content. She has been associated with leading alternative schools in India, like Azim Premji Foundation. She is well known for teaching in innovative ways, creating alternative curricula and methods of assessment. She is now an independent consultant for OUP, devoted to bringing about a change in the teaching learning process in the classroom to make learning more effective and meaningful.